

Certification Agreement

1. Responsibility of Certification Body

As a party to this agreement, to assess and certify in accordance with the current issue of Rules of Procedures and procedure for Website Certification. It should be noted that in pursuance of its policy of continuous improvement of its services, Certification Body (CB) reserves the right to modify the contents of procedures at any time.

2. Responsibility of Applicant

As a party to this agreement, to provide Certification Body with all documents, information and facilities as necessary to enable Certification Body to provide the services under this agreement. Also to abide by the terms and conditions as laid down by Certification Body from time to time.

3. Terms of Payment

Terms of payments are as per document schedule of charges . The basic charges for the services requested are quoted on the assumption that the information supplied by the organisation was accurate and complete. It should be noted that schedule of charges is subject to review.

4. Cancellation

If the Applicant cancels the Application for Certification after applying, his application fee will not be refunded.

5. Invoices

Invoices will be submitted as soon as practicable, after the completion of any milestone of the Certification process.

6. Payment

Payment becomes due within 28 days of the date of invoices. Thereafter, the outstanding unpaid amount may accrue interest at the rate of 18% per annum.

It shall be noted that the Certificate of Registration cannot be released until payment has been received by Certification Body.

8. Termination

Parties may terminate this agreement :-

8.1

By Notice

Three months written notice may be given by the Applicant to the Certification Body.

8.2 By Default

8.2.1 Immediately upon either party being notified by the other of any material breach of this agreement.

8.2.2 If any party goes into liquidation or part of the undertaking thereof.

8.2.3 If either party ceases to trade whether in whole in part.

8.3 In the event of this agreement being terminated whether by notice, default or otherwise the Certificate of Registration issued pursuant hereto shall forthwith become invalid and Applicant shall cease to use the same and return to Certification Body all documentation and other matters issued pursuant thereto or bearing an indication of such certification.

9. Liability

The Certificate of Registration given to a client under the scheme shall not be regarded as in any way diminishing the mutual contractual responsibilities/obligations between the Applicant and his customer. While the Certificate of Registration will normally be a sound indicator of the capability of Client to; implement a management system, e.g., in line with the applicable standard, it should not be taken as a sort of guarantee accorded by the Certification Body.

10. Indemnity

The Applicant shall fully and effectively indemnify Certification Body against all costs, claims, actions and demands arising from -

- i) The services provided by Certification Body.
- ii) The use or misuse by the organisation of Certificate of Registration and/or mark provided by Certification Body in accordance with this agreement.
- iii) Any breach of this agreement.

11. Scope Expansion

In case of addition of new site/ activity, the organization shall inform the Certification body about the same and a new certification agreement incorporating the change shall be agreed and signed by both the parties.

12. Information to be published

STQC publishes details like certified client list, status of certification etc. on its website. In case the client has any reservation regarding this, the same shall be informed to the CB in advance.
