

Dear Colleagues,

As we welcome the New Year 2026, I convey my sincere greetings to every member of the STQC family. The past year has reflected your dedication, resilience, and collective commitment in delivering quality assurance services of the highest technical standards to the nation.

In the year ahead, our objective remains firmly anchored in the modernisation of STQC strengthening infrastructure, refining processes, and enhancing service delivery with equal importance to capacity building of our manpower, empowering each of you with new skills and opportunities to meet emerging challenges with confidence.

I trust that each of you will continue to bring the same passion, drive and dedication into the New Year, strengthening our shared journey towards the modernisation of STQC.

Once Again, I wish you and your families a prosperous and healthy New Year 2026.
